CORPORATE PERFORMANCE

2002 – present

Extensive M.C. (straight and character) and comic/hoax speaker work using tailored original material

Notable Engagements

Super Cheap Auto Manager's Conference as S.T. Pitt - 2004

Institute of Modern Art Function as Gordon Itztynks - 2004

Australian Cinematographers Society (Queensland) Awards as MC- 2004

Bridnane Advertising and Design Club Annual Awards as character MC - 2003

Characters

S.T. Pitt - Master of Motivation

Author of international best selling books 'One Step Beyond', 'Further than Beyond' and 'So far Beyond it's Like, Whoa!', S.T. Pitt rose from humble beginnings in Pocatello, Idaho to become a world renowned motivational speaker. He travels extensively around the United States and now the world preaching a highly believable, form of self help. During the course of the performance, it becomes highly ridiculous. He will take you on journey 'One Step Beyond' anything you had believed possible, or remotely plausible.

The Right Reverend Cuthbert Woodenbottom- Chairman of the British Business Ethics Council

A lifelong campaigner on 'the moral dimension' in business, sports and ornamental gardening, Rev. Woodenbottom is a widely respected contributor to the current business ethics debate in Britain. Author of 'Morals, Money and Machievellianism - the South Midlands Gardenia Society Story', Rev. Woodenbottom poses many challenging questions to a business audience - and fails miserably in addressing any of them.

Gordon Itztynks - Chairman and CEO, Ruffers Gutz Group International

Gordon's remarkable career began in Perth real estate in the early 1980s. Following a string of successful property developments he became a junior partner in the Lucky Hairball gold and zinc project, eventually wresting control from Austrian business partners Hans Ruffers and Johann Gutz. Under Gordon's stewardship, the RG Group has developed into a diversified conglomerate with interests in mining, real estate and hazardous waste management. His trademark presentation, 'Opportunity; grab it and GO!' will have every audience member reassessing their entrepreneurial spirit - and the contents of their wallets.

Isaiah P Hardcastle- Lieutenant Colonel, United States Marine Corps (Ret.)

A veteran of several still classified operations from late in the Vietnam war, Lt. Col. Hardcastle served his country with (dubious) distinction in various posts around the world, eventually retiring from active duty as a result of injuries sustained in the first Gulf War of 1991. Colonel Hardcastle's military style business coaching techniques have been the subject of much controversy, however he remains unrepentant, "Dammit, any executive who can't chew his way out from inside a sewn up buffalo carcass inside 3 minutes just ain't worth spit!"

Endorsements

" S.T. Pitt was the highlight of our 2004 Manager's conference. Todd had almost 300 people absolutely convinced he was the real thing and could take them 'One Step Beyond', then had them rolling in the aisles with laughter. It was brilliant."

Kevin McAulay, Marketing Manager, Super Cheap Auto

"Todd has made some valuable and very funny contributions to our events, including pulling off the tough role of MC at our large and complex Christmas function. It's easy to recommend him."

Ian Warner, President, Brisbane Advertising Association

"Our annual awards night is huge. Todd's bizarre MC performance not only held it all together but was quite something to watch in its own right. He has also been a major asset at a number of our other functions. In or out of costume, he's simply a great MC."

Justine Douglas , President, Brisbane Advertising and Design Club

"When I need to break the ice at an event, I use a sledge hammer. His name is Todd Levi."

Wendy Mansell, General Manager, Institute of Modern Art, Brisbane.
